

Dr Catherine Crouch

Dr Catherine Crouch is a Consultant Forensic Psychiatrist who works with the Community Forensic Mental Health Service and in the private sector. She is also an accredited assessor permanent impairment as per the NSW Work Cover and Motor Accident Authority Regulations.

After completing her MBBS at the University of Adelaide, Dr Crouch undertook psychiatry training in South Australia. She became a fellow of RANZCP in 2015 gaining advanced certificate qualifications in Forensic Psychiatry at the same time. She has experience in providing civil and criminal psychiatric reports for court and parole board.

Dr Crouch is currently completing a Masters of Philosophy through the University of NSW.