

ABBREVIATED CURRICULUM VITAE

Dr Rafe Pulley

MBBS (Qld), FRANZCP, MFMH (UNSW)

Dr Rafe Pulley is a consultant forensic psychiatrist. He is currently a staff specialist at the high secure Forensic Hospital, in Sydney and is engaged in private practice, both treating patients and providing medicolegal reports.

Dr Pulley has been practising in medicine for 15 years. He completed a Bachelor of Medicine, Bachelor of Surgery at the University of Queensland in 1999. He began working in psychiatry in 2003 and completed his Fellowship of the Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Psychiatrists in 2012. He completed a Masters of Forensic Mental Health at the University of New South Wales in July 2015.

Dr Pulley has extensive experience in providing psychiatric reports to Local and District Courts, the Parole Board and the Drug Court in New South Wales as well as preparing reports for civil courts, victim's compensation and WorkCover. He is WorkCover NSW Trained Assessor of Permanent Impairment. He is a conjoint lecture at the University of New South Wales and is actively involved in teaching psychiatry trainees and medical students.