

Dr Sathish Dayalan

Dr Sathish Dayalan is a consultant forensic psychiatrist who currently works at the Forensic Hospital, South Coast Correctional Centre and St Leonards Specialist Clinic. He has been presenting expert witness evidence at criminal courts (Local, District and Supreme) since 2008. He is also an accredited assessor of permanent impairment as per NSW Work Cover and Motor Accident Authority Regulations.

After completing his MBBS, Dr Dayalan undertook psychiatric training in Nottingham (UK) and secured Membership of the Royal College of Psychiatrists (UK) in 2005. He also completed a diploma in clinical psychiatry with University of Nottingham during the training. He undertook further training in Australia and was elected to The Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Psychiatrists in 2008. He proceeded to complete the Masters Course in Forensic Mental health with distinction and secured advanced training certificate in Forensic Psychiatry in 2011.

Dr Dayalan has contributed to publication in the field of forensic psychiatry and has presented on topics relating to forensic psychiatry at local and international conferences. He is a conjoint lecturer at the University of New South Wales and an accredited assessor for the College of Psychiatrists.